Grover's Entertainment V.-risty is the established order of the day with Manager Grover; the opera last night, and this evening a triple comic entertainment. Setchell, the favorite, appears in every piece in his choice characters, sustaining four in all. The performances will commence at 8 o'clock, and will be repeated at 10 o'clock.

"Resolved, etc., that the commissioners of their office be, and they are hereby required to take the oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States prescribed for the officers of the corporation." This is as follows:

"Resolved, etc., that the commissioners of their office be, and they are hereby required to take the oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States prescribed for the officers of the corporation."

Those voting in the negative were Mr. Emerson of the first ward, Mr. Clegg of the second, Mr. Hobart, Mr. H. M. and Mr. Edmonson of the third, Mr. H. H. and Mr. Muloy of the fifth.

Of the above, all are candidates of the Constitutional Union party for re-election to the Board of Common Council, except Mr. Muloy, who is the candidate for the Board of Aldermen from the fifth ward.

Voters of Washington will remember that those men, by the votes they have given, have placed themselves in direct hostility to the Government. They have placed upon the records of their public acts a signal disowning the Government to which they owe their allegiance. They failed in the attempt, however. The resolution passed, but we desire our fellow-citizens to beware how they trust such men with power. Recollect it, and when the day for voting comes, show them by your votes that they are not worthy to represent a loyal people.

A word to the poor.—Poor men who are struggling to live should remember that, when Mr. Haliday was Collector, he urged the revival of the law by which the poor man's property might be sold for taxes, when due, and applied to the public service. The cost of the "Haunted Hotel," keeps the audience in a continual roar of laughter. It is well arranged throughout, and no one can witness it without being amused. The astonishing Lewis and Clark appear to-night, and the great feats and other marvels of the talented company appear in their favorite acts. This afternoon, a matinee will be given for ladies and children, and this simple announcement is sufficient to fill the house. Let's see who will get the splendid silver cake basket this afternoon.

Circassians.—There is certainly no place of amusement in our midst which is more worthy of public patronage than the Canterbury. After the labors and care of the day are over, it is a pleasure to know that we can go to the Canterbury and enjoy a rich few hours presented to the public. The present entertainment, the "Haunted Hotel," keeps the audience in a continual roar of laughter. It is well arranged throughout, and no one can witness it without being amused.

"Bill MULLOY" made a speech in the City Hall, yesterday, and expressed the feelings of oddly funny sentiments. Amongst other things, he wanted to have the word "Slavery" branded in his forehead, and wished that negroes were held as slaves in every State and Territory of the Federal Union. He would spin one's self to "rat" "Bill" home to be an Alderman, and is running against one of the most conservative and loyal citizens of Washington. Citizens of the Fifth ward, which man best suits your taste?

The Democratic Party, aided by old-line Whigs, united to put down Know-Nothingism, and other anti-slavery measures, and political parties and dark-lantern conclaves, but the Democratic party, allied with traitors, met in secret conclave in the Fourth ward, not long since, and fixed up a ticket which they propose to run against the Union ticket in that ward. Citizens of Washington, which ticket best represents your interests?

The Fair at the Young Men's Christian Association.

We are assured by several correspondents that the Fair now in progress at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, is a Rebel affair, as will be seen by the subjoined notice of it. In addition, we are informed that a band in attendance played the "Star Spangled Banner," which was extensively blazed.

That night one reporter visited the Fair, uninvited, and discovered that a good old flag was displayed, and several young ladies wore miniature flags; but here is an account of the matter from a gentleman of undoubted veracity:

"A meeting was being held in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, under the immediate auspices of the Bible class, belonging to the church congregation, over which the Rev. Dr. Pinkney is rector. The whole affair, unmilitated, "soothed" over to the general public. The entertainment, to be given, during the summer months, will be characterized by a vivacity of humor and carelessness of "legitimate" dramatic proprieties, which will admirably adapt them to the popular liking. The company will include Stars, and some prominent names, Mr. Vincent, with special favorites in this city.

The price will be graduated to meet the requirements of the times.

Academy of Music.—Free concerts every day at 4 o'clock, with the best and most attentive waiters to supply the finest refreshments to be found in the city.

The Hayes' Corpus Case.—The Writ Executed in Appeal.

Before the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia, James Dunlop, chief justice, and J. S. Morell, and W. M. Merrick, associates.

In the master of Wilson Copeland, claimed as a fugitive slave by Ignatius Waters, of Montgomery county, Maryland, the question being on the petition of Daniel Reed, of this city, for a writ of habeas corpus, for the discharge of the fugitive.

The court sat at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Dean presented his argument in favor of granting the writ. His points were many of them as already stated in our columns. He also considered the case particularly applicable to this case. He gave some interesting points in the history of the writ of habeas corpus.

The Executive Family.

Drunks.

One named William Thompson, a laborer, attracted considerable attention yesterday, in the vicinity of the Post Office, lying in a drunken sleep on the sidewalk. He was found by his liquor, and took him before Justice Thompson, who gave him an admonition and let him go.

Corns.

It is truly wonderful that these apparently insignificant, but most troublesome, customers which the human race is peopled with, can be removed without trouble. By the application of a simple, but safe, remedy, or by use of Umbrella's Pimple Balsam, you are surprised to find that you can walk without the slightest inconvenience. You thank the Doctor, leave a trifle for the printer, and go on your way rejoicing, and tell your friends that Dr. Umbrella's operations are right at 126 Pennsylvania Avenue, between Fourth and half a and Sixth streets.

Use Dr. White's preparation for Corns, Bunions, Sore and Tuberous Feet, &c. $1.50 and 25¢ box.

The commission is not in session to day.
